

The All-Japan Iaido Federation hereby authorizes Denton Hewgill, President of the Canadian Iaido Association, to exercise the following rights in Canada:

1. To engage in activities which will promote the establishment and development of iaido.
2. To administer dan examinations up to and including 5th dan. Such examinations shall be administered in conjunction with any directives given by a representative appointed by the All-Japan Iaido Federation.
3. To issue dan certificates up to and including 5th dan.

In the event that this authorization is misused, it will be considered void.
